If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him.

Today's Gospel Lesson

Sixth Sunday of Easter
May 10, 2026

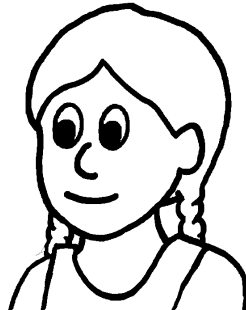

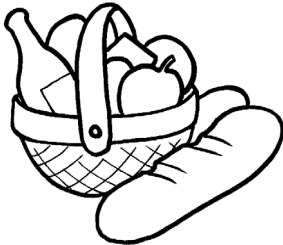

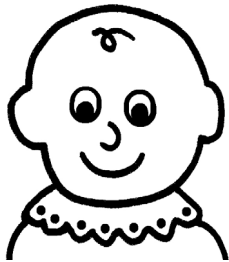

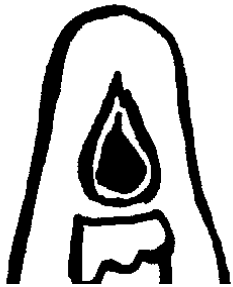

God sent the Holy Spirit to be our Helper,
and to guide us all our lives.

Children's Worship Pages

In Athens, Paul saw a lot of idols that honored false gods. This upset him. He reminded the people that we are made in the image of the one true God. God isn't made of gold or stone, so he can't be a statue.

*Color all the pictures.
Then, circle the things that are made in God's image.*

God gave us the Ten Commandments to teach us how to live.

Draw a line from the commandment on the left to its meaning on the right. The first one is done for you.

You shall have no other gods.

Do not take anyone's life.

You shall not take God's name in vain.

Don't desire someone else's home.

Remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy.

Don't say untrue things about people.

Honor your father and mother.

Only worship the one, true God.

You shall not kill.

Treat your parents with respect.

You shall not commit adultery.

Don't take something that isn't yours.

You shall not steal.

Only use God's name when you're talking about or praying to him.

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor

Don't desire things that aren't yours.

You shall not covet your neighbor's house

Set aside one day a week to worship God.

You shall not covet your neighbor's spouse, or anything that is his.

Be faithful to your spouse.
